MONSTER HIGH
SECRETS OF MERMAID REEF
BY ADRIANNA CUEVAS

I'm so glad we get to be on the beach on a very hot day in the summer.
Yeah, and besides, who am I to have sunscreen on before I can go into the water.
Frankie, you're a teenager, frankensteins like you should always--- Clawdeen! Draculaura! Frankie! Y'all need to see this!
I wonder what Lagoona wants us for.
What seems to be the problem, Lagoona?
I just got an alert on my watch saying that we have a mermaid who is stealing a gold of treasure!
Oh no!
That's terrible!
We must help the good mermaids! They knew teamwork better than anyone!
But who will help us?
My friend Sirena Von Boo will! She can float like a ghost and swim like a mermaid!
Then let's go to the underwater reef and save this reef!
Yeah!
But we're not mermaids.
Oh, don't worry. My amulet is magical to transform into different animals. Amulet, we wish we were mermaids!

Wow, Lagoona! Your tail slays!
Thanks, girl. Your fin slays as well! Now let's go see Sirena! Come on!
Lagoona, hello! I see you got your friends. Thank heavens.
That's right, and I got the alert of the stolen treasure, also known as the gold coins.
Do you know who stole the treasure?
A new mermaid villain named Queen Kimani, stole our treasure, and she took it to her castle.
That queen! Oh, yeah! I knew she did it!
Ooh, when I see her, I'm gonna use my kitty cat claws to scratch her!
Sirena, can you show us where to get to Kimani's castle before she's having it all by herself?
Yes. You must take a left, then straight, then to the right.
It's not far away. It can only take us a few minutes.
Don't worry, Sirena! We'll get your coins back and we'll defeat Kimani once and for all! Come on, friends! Let's go!
Good luck, mermaids! I'll meet you at the castle once you defeat Kimani!

Now that I got those good old coins, nobody can stop me from having it by myself. Who knows what it can go wrong? Now, let me go do something with---
Stop right there, Kimani!
Oh my gosh! You must be The Boo Crew Sirena told me about!
That's right! And we've caught you with the bag of gold coins!
You girls better not take my coins! Because this is what people get for not sharing a coin with me due to me collecting the coins fast!
But mermaids are supposed to prevent themselves from sharing with you! And always remember that you're an evil and bad mermaid!
What did you just call me, girl? You're gonna regret this!
Well, Kimani, it's about time we battle you with our superpowers!
Bring it on! I don't care!

You're too late, Kimani! The gold coins is ours now!
NOOO

Come and get those coins!
That was the best coins I have ever seen! And where did you get those from?
We were on an underwater adventure where an evil bad mermaid took all of the gold coins. But we defeated her and Sirena has given us those amulets to use in the future.
Well, I'm very proud of you, sweetie. It looks like you and your friends have made such good mermaids.
Thanks, Mom.
Say, how about we go get some ice cream?
I love ice cream!
Let's get this ice cream from a truck.
And so, Lagoona Blue and her friends' mission to get the gold coins back from Kimani is complete. And as a reward, they earned their amulets to use, and that's what being a mermaid is truly all about.
Toodle-oo!
Farewell!
The end!
